By The Associated Press

DAYTON O, July 31—CIO unionists defying Gov Thomas J Herbert to call out national guardsmen today went ahead with plans to stage another mass meeting Monday outside the Univis Lens Co plant

Herbert making an on-the-scene attempt to solve the violence-torn strike by CIO Electrical Workers, warned he would call out the troops unless assured there would be no demonstration The plant normally is closed weekends

"I came here to assure there would be peace in the plant area Herbert told union leaders What it takes to do that will be the test I am giving you people an opportunity to avoid meeting force The responsibility is yours."

Street fighting broke out yesterday between pickets and non-strikers when the CIO council called the first mass meeting to protest what it described as police brutality" More than 120 police were on hand to escort non-strikers into the plant Officers broke up the melee with tear gas Estimates of the crowd outside the plant ranged from 6 000 to 16 000

Police Guards' 5th Day

It marked the fifth day in a row that several hundred employes returned to work under police protection. The company was struck 87 days ago in a wage dispute

The Montgomery CIO council representing 30 000 unionists in this area last night asked all second and third shift workers including those belonging to the AFL and Railroad Brotherhoods — to attend an "emergency mass meeting" Monday morning across the street from the Univis plant

George Moyer, council president said the meeting was called in protest of M H Stanley's (Univis president) refusal to negotiate with the Univis workers shop committee of local 768 UE CIO which still is the legal bargaining agent of the Univis lens workers

Says No Official Action

Univis workers voted last Friday in a national labor relations board election against continuing the UE as bargaining agent Moyer said the NLRB has not officially decertified the UE local

"Until the official certification of decertification is received the council is 100 per cent behind the UE, Moyer said He declined to make any prediction beyond that statement"

James Kraft president of the 6 500-member Electrical Workers local at the Delco plant, and a council member went further He told reporters

"If the strike is settled by Monday the meeting is off If it is not settled by Monday we'll be out there in force and every day thereafter They don't scare us by saying what they'll do They have done it"

Since the plant reopened Monday 22 pickets and one non-striker has been arrested and several pickets injured in clashes with police

Marion Recruiting Office Is Busy Place These Days

Recruiting is a big business today, M Sgt William Fetter Army and Air Forces recruiter here, reports Day after day greater numbers of veterans and potential draftees throng to the local recruiting office at 188 South Main street to investigate the advantages of enlisting or reenlisting

With service pay now at its peak and the uniform situation and chances for advancement the best since World War II, the recruiting office has been busy early and late since the draft bill was passed by congress

For the present a quota system has been put in force to give the services a chance to keep the barracks reopening situation abreast of the flood of potential enlistees The recruiting situation is a mercurial thing however and interested men from this area check almost daily with the recruiter to keep in touch with the latest phases of the Army and Air Forces rapid expansion program A brief summary of orders now in force at the recruiting stations of the Mansfield recruiting district of which Marion is a part was explained today by M Sgt Fetter are as follows The facts he outlined are true as of today Neither the sergeant nor his superior officers will take any bets on how long these directives will be in force

Marion Has Quota

Marion's quota of army and air force enlistments is now 13 a month and each enlistee is a hand picked candidate Sergeant Fetter said Enlisting in the Army or Air Forces now is a first come first served proposition

Highest priority is required for one year enlistments To secure one of the 24 one year enlistments alloted the Mansfield recruiting district, of which Marion is a part, the applicant must present an original birth certificate or a certified birth certificate bearing the seal of the registrar of vital statistics for the entire state, no photographic or photostatic copies will be acceptable The recruiter here marks a card at the exact minute the birth certificate is presented and each enlistee is selected for a call to the service in the exact order in which the certificates were presented

Second highest priority is set for men who enlist for a special school of the air forces or ground forces training program These schools include aircraft and engine mechanic, diesel mechanic, radio operator teletype mechanic, supply clerical administrative and jet mechanic

Age Limits Fixed

The age limits for Army and Air Force service is now 17 years to 34½ years without prior service For men over 34½ with prior service a man may enlist at an age as many years beyond the age of 34½ as he has had years of service in the army or air forces for example a man 39 years old who was physically fit could enlist if he has had five years prior service

Thirty men qualified for enlistment during July before present quotas became effective

Officer candidate schools for both ground and air officers training are still available to enlistees Sgt Fetter said Additional information about both the Army and Air Forces service may be secured by a visit to the recruiting station at 188 South Main street any week day between the hours of 8 30 a m and 4 30 p m

U.S. MOVES UP IN OLYMPICS

Trackmen and Swimmers, Including OSU Star, Score Four Victories.

By The Associated Press

LONDON July 31 — American track trackmen and swimmers broke into the winning circle today scoring four final victories in the second full day of the 14th Olympic games.

Harrison Dillard, great Negro hurdler and sprinter atoned for his failure to make the hurdling squad, by winning the Olympic gold medal in the 100-meter sprint in the Olympic record-equalling time of 10 3 seconds

Roy Cochran of the Los Angeles Athletic club gave the American spectators in the huge 84 000 throng at Wembley Stadium their first big occasion to cheer when he won the 400 meter hurdles just before Dillard captured the metric century The former Indiana university star led from the first hurdle and was given a tremendous ovation as he won by five yards in the Olympic record-breaking time of 51 1 seconds

Ohio State Diver Wins

In the Empire poolhouse the Stars and Stripes was hoisted to mark a U S sweep in the springboard diving competition, won by Bruce Harlan of Ohio State

Then Wally Ris brilliant freestyle artist from the University of Iowa splashed to victory in the 100 meter spring in Olympic record time of 57.6 seconds Alan Ford of Yale finished second in 57.8 and Keith Carter of Purdue U was fourth behind Hungary's Geza Kadas

Shut out of the gold medals in competition yesterday, the Red White and Blue forces went to town today

Besides the four firsts, the U S copped numerous points with seconds thirds and fourths

Ewell Finishes Strong

In the 100 meter track dash Barney Ewell 30 year-old former Penn State speedster from Lancaster Pa closed with a terrific burst that almost caught Dillard Lloyd Labeach American trained sprinter from Panama was third Alan M Corquodale of Britain was a surprising fourth and Mel Patton the favorite from Southern California as a disappointing fifth

Dick Ault of Missouri added three points to the American cause by taking fourth place in the 400 meter hurdles behind Cochran Duncan White unknown from Celon and Rune Larsson of Sweden

Right behind Harlan in the dive came Miller Anderson also of Ohio State and Dr Sammy Lee of Pasadena Calif

Holland Swimmer Stars

Sharing the honors with the mighty U S squad was Nel Van Vliet, the outstanding breast stroke swimmer from Holland World record holder in her specialty at 200 meters she swam the distance today in two minutes, 57 seconds to win her semi-final heat in Olympic record time

All three U S entries in the 800 meter run—Mal Whitfield of Ohio State, Herb Barten of the University of Michigan and Bob Chamber of Southern California —qualified for the finals to be run Monday

Barten won his preliminary heat in 1 51" Whitfield the chief U. S. hope at the distance was

FORMER AGENT OF RUSSIANS LISTS CURRIE

Witness Also Includes Former U.S. Treasury Aide Among USSR Benefactors.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, July 31 — Lauchlin Currie, one time aide to the President Roosevelt, and Harry Dexter White, former assistant secretary of the treasury, were named by ex-Soviet agent Elizabeth T Bentley today as two from whom Russians got secret war information.

In a sensation-studded congressional hearing Miss Bentley ticked off one name after another of government officials she said were sources of "political and military" information gathered by the Soviet spy ring she was in.

Her testimony was under oath to the house un-American activities committee which picked up where a senate group left off yesterday in hearing the blonde Vassar graduate's story Startled committee members said they would ask for a special grand jury to look into the question of whether there should be prosecutions.

Miss Bentley swears

Currie was not a Communist, but he "gave us some information, he had inside information on government policies." It was through Currie, she said, that information reached the Russians that the United States was about to "break" the Soviet code. ("Break" means learn to decipher) This would have permitted the United States to read secret Russian dispatches to the Soviet embassy here. (Code "breaking" was one of the greatest of wartime secrets.)

White was a member of what she called the "Silvermaster group" and "gave information to Mr. Silvermaster which was relayed on to me" and eventually to the Russians.

She said she referred to H. Gregory Silvermaster and called him a Communist and Russian secret police agent who worked for the farm security administration at that time He is no longer with the government.

And she named various others.

While Miss Bentley was testifying to the house committee, senate investigators were questioning William W. Remington, commerce department official.

Miss Bentley told the senators yesterday that Remington was a Communist and gave her secret information on American plane production during the war.

Remington, under oath, told the senators he would have left the government long ago except for "a firm conviction in my innocence"

Special Probe Demanded

These and other disclosures led to a demand by Rep. Thomas (R-NJ), chairman of the house Un-American activities committee, for a special grand jury probe of "espionage in government"

Rep Rankin (D-Miss) said state, city and county government workers should be looked into, too,

Miss Bentley told the senate group yesterday that Remington gave her secret government information during the war and she passed it on to Russian agents.

Remington denies that.

He told a senate expenditures subcommittee headed by Senator Ferguson (R-Mich) that Arthur MacMahon, now a member of President Truman's loyalty board, recommended him for the atomic commission job.

Gave Up Naval Commission

Remington also acknowledged that he resigned a naval reserve commission by request before he was given his present government job, a key post concerned with trade with Russia. He is presently "on leave" from that job while the senate committee inquiry is on.

He said he knew the FBI was investigating his dealings with Miss Bentley at the time the Navy asked his resignation, but did not connect the request and the investigation

Remington "On Leave"

Remington was placed on "indefinite leave" about a month ago by Secretary of Commerce Sawyer pending a loyalty investigation by the civil service commission

Sawyer said in a statement yesterday that in taking that action "I did not intend to indicate a decision that he was guilty"

Remington is director of the export programs staff of the office of international trade. In that capacity, he presided over a committee which decided, behind closed doors, what "war potential" goods to ban for shipment to Russia. That committee's activities and decisions are highly secret.

Navy "Bat Bombs" Fail To Sink Old Battleship

By The United Press

HONOLULU, July 31 — The Navy's newest weapons, radar-guided bat bombs proved "a disappointment" when tried out on the veteran battleship Nevada, Navy officers said today

The bat bombs missed the 20 000 ton Nevada survivor of two World Wars and two atom bomb tests The staunch old battleship also survived four and one-half hours of shelling She was finally sunk by five torpedoes

Adm Dewitt C Ramsey Pacific fleet commander said the bat bombs failed to produce results when they were rocketed against the Nevada from Navy patrol bombers The closest one missed by 600 yards, he said.

The Nevada also stood up under other tests of the Navy's latest explosives conducted for four days off Oahu island. When she did go down it was after a tremendous hammering by 14 warships and 60 warplanes of task force 19

The task force was made up especially to sink the Nevada which was too radioactive from the Bikini tests to be reduced to scrap

The Nevada's graveyard was in 13 800 feet of water at a point 66 miles southwest of Oahu The guns of a cargo ship opened up on her at 4 04 p m

Destroyer escorts joined the barrage with five-inch guns Air forces Tunderbolts raked her with rockets setting fires in the superstructure

The battleship Iowa opened up from 12 miles away with 16-inch rifles closing to six miles along with crusers whose guns joined in One salvo from the Iowa's rifles hit the Nevada broadside but she still floated

Two bat bombs were fired during the early part of the barrage

One struck 600 yards off her bow and the other 1,000 yards astern.

The finishing blow was delivered by five aerial torpedoes.

They opened her side and she sank stern first within a minute after the last one hit

The Iowa's 800 midshipmen stood at attention a Marine rifle squad fired a salute, Hawaiian flower petals were dropped and finally taps were sounded

GOP OBJECTS INCOME TAXES INTO DEBATE

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, July 31 — Republicans injected income taxes into the bitter cost of living debate today, saying President Truman's special session program would mean doubled tax payments.

Congress itself took a weekend siesta from its heated disputes over who's to blame for high prices and what to do about them and the poll tax controversy. Senator Taft (R-Ohio) said maybe it will go home for good a week from today.

GOP leaders, meanwhile, scheduled strategy conferences—including talks with Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's campaign manager—which may bring a decision on how far the Republicans will go toward meeting Mr. Truman's demands for anti-inflation powers.

New restraints on bank credit and installment buying appeared likely limits to what the Republicans may concede. But the GOP answer was still "no" to the President's request for some price and wage controls, revived rationing and a long range housing bill.

Republican opposition was pointed up anew last night by House Speaker Martin (Mass.) who told a radio audience:

"This congress will never rubber-stamp left-wing schemes for more spending, and more government control of everything in America."

Martin said that if all Mr. Truman's program were enacted it would mean doubling the income taxes. "That," he said, "would sink America."

Senator Millikin (R-Colo.) also brought the tax question into the anti-inflation picture.

The chairman of the senate finance committee said in a radio talk last night that Mr. Truman is disregarding "the people's demand for further tax reduction" and has asked for an excess profits levy on business opposed by "some of the brainiest leaders of his party."

TRUMAN TO DEDICATE AIRPORT WITH DEWEY

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, July 31— Under a canopy of the nation's airmight President Truman and his Republican rival for the presidency, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, join today in opening the world's largest airport.

In doing so they write a new page in modern American political history.

The occasion is the President's formal dedication of the huge New York International airport at Idlewild Queens and an aerial pageant billed as the nation's mightiest peacetime airshow.

The show will be witnessed by an expected 100,000 spectators, members of the President's cabinet, a large congressional delegation and representatives of 30 foreign nations.

The history making get-together between Mr. Truman and Gov. Dewey will be the first time on record that presidential candidates of the two major parties have met publicly and made speeches on the same program during a campaign.

To fit the occasion, both will arrive by air.

3 B-29'S TO MAKE NON-STOP FLIGHT

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, July 31 — Three air force B-29 superforts leave on a 5,000-mile non-stop flight today at the end of a military aerial demonstration at New York's International airport.

The long-range bombers are scheduled to leave here at 6 p. m. and fly non-stop to Los Angeles and back, returning here at 4 p. m. tomorrow.

The three planes are among a group of 200 B-29s flown here for the airshow from the Carswell air force base at Fort Worth, Tex.

The air force says the non-stop trip will be a routine cruise-control flight performed on approximately 8,000 gallons of gasoline loaded in each plane.

ENVOYS ACT TO END BERLIN BLOCKADE

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, July 31 — The United States Britain and France are taking "a mutual step toward reviewing their demand for an end to the Berlin crisis."

Disclosing it the state department said today that the American and French ambassadors and British representatives had called separately on Deputy Foreign Minister Vladimir A. Zorin, the Soviet foreign office's last night.

The western envoys are armed with new instructions to seek a settlement of Berlin and leave the way for general negotiations with Russia.

The western allies previously had been told that Foreign Minister Molotov was away. They were referred to Zorin as the next ranking official.

From today's announcement it is evident that they did not take up with Zorin the western powers' demands to discuss any major business. What they did do was not disclosed here but the state department described it as a preliminary step.

Press Official Michael J. McDermott said he could not say what was the nature of the preliminary step nor what it was seeking.

Since word was sent out that Molotov was on vacation it has appeared increasingly probable that the western envoys might seek direct contact with Premier Stalin in their efforts to employ every recourse of "diplomacy to try to solve the dangerous problem."

JURY FINDS COUPLE GUILTY OF MURDER

By The Associated Press

HAMILTON, O., July 31 — A jury of seven men and five women last night found Mrs. Mario Conn Abbott and her former lover, Cyril Gordon guilty of murder for the mattock slaying of her husband, Morris R. Abbott, May 31.

Gordon, the 27 year-old farm hand who on the witness stand admitted striking the fatal blows was found guilty of murder in the first degree, but the jury recommended mercy. A life sentence is mandatory.

Mrs. Abbott, 40, the mother of two, was found guilty of second degree murder.

Date for sentencing was not set.

The jury returned its verdict at 11:45 p. m. after five and one-half hours of deliberation.

In testimony both Gordon and Mrs. Abbott admitted intimacies but Mrs. Abbott testified her love for Gordon had cooled prior to the slaying.

William F. Hopkins counsel for Mrs. Abbott, said he would ask for a new trial for her and would request she be released on bond.

Prosecutor Paul Baden of Butler county said the verdicts were fair in the face of the evidence.

The 11-day trial culminated yesterday after Judge Fred B. Cramer instructed the jury it could return any of 17 verdicts. He told the jury, however, it could not return a verdict of guilty against Mrs. Abbott if it found Gordon innocent.

Pennsy's Earning Drop, "Caught in Inflation"

By The Associated Press

PHILADELPHIA, July 31 —The Pennsylvania railroad reported its earnings dropped $3,000,000 for the first half of 1948 in comparison to a similar period last year — and a spokesman said the PRR was "caught in the march of inflation."

Pennsy reported net income from Jan. 1 to June 30 as $853,821 equal to five cents per common share. This compares yesterday's company statement said to $3,790,986 and 29 cents for the same period in 1947.

ECCLES DETERMINED TO REMAIN ON BOARD

By The United Press

WASHINGTON, July 31—Marriner Eccles said today that he is determined to stay on the Federal Reserve board despite his public opposition to President Truman's anti-inflation program.

His present term as a board member runs until 1958 and Mr. Eccles told reporters he has no intention of resigning.

"This is no time for me to take a run-out," he said.

Mr. Eccles yesterday assailed the proposals Mr. Truman laid before the extra session of congress as "a futile effort." He said it was like trying to put humpty dumpty together again and that the program as a whole did not "make economic sense."

The plain-speaking Mr. Eccles headed the federal reserve board for 12 years. He said he was demoted by President Truman last January because he was "a political liability."

Mr. Eccles has been fighting privately with the administration since last November when he first advanced a plan to raise bank reserve requirements as a curb on consumer credit. He told a senate banking committee this week the plan was scuttled by Secretary of the Treasury John W. Snyder.

Linemen Tie Up Repair Service in Oak Ridge

By The United Press

OAK RIDGE, Tenn., July 31— Thirty electrical linemen at Oak Ridge today joined 69 building maintenance electricians in quitting work, leaving the Atomic city without repair service for its electric system.

Roane-Anderson company, which operates the system for the Atomic Energy Commission said the workmen quit after a competitive sub-contract was awarded a Knoxville contractor.

All the workers are members of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (AFL) and were working under a contract containing a "no-strike" clause, they said they quit to take better jobs.

The company said "emergency service probably would be provided for strategic installations."

Hogs Bring Record Price of $31 in Ohio

By International News Service

COLUMBUS, July 31 - Packing houses and butchers cast anxious glances at the hog market today after a new high was set for the second consecutive day.

A few choice animals brought $31 per hundredweight yesterday, 25 cents higher than the record set the day before.

The $31 Columbus top equalled the record set yesterday at Chicago and was one dollar higher than the high established at Kansas City.

7 Miners Die, 12 Hurt In Explosion of Gas

By The Associated Press

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., July 31— Eight coal miners were dead today and 11 injured as a result of a gas explosion that rocked a section of the Big Edgewater mine near here early yesterday.

Two of the injured were listed by hospital attaches as in critical condition.

The explosion ripped through a remote area of the mine about 9 a. m. and rescue crews formed immediately to descend to the scene of the disaster about four miles from the shafts entrance. The mine nine miles west of here is the largest of the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad Co. and employes about 1,000 men.

ANSWERS HEDY'S SUIT

By The Associated Press

SANTA MONICA, Calif., July 31—Look Magazine has filed an answer to a $200,000 damage suit filed by Actress Hedy LaMarr. The actress claimed an article in the publication indicated she had had her nose altered by plastic surgery which she said is untrue. Look's attorneys said yesterday the magazine had no intention of disparaging Hedy's beauty and that furthermore she had prior knowledge of the article.

GERMANS SAY RUSSIA AVOIDS BERLIN ISSUE

By The Associated Press

BERLIN, July 31 — German non-Communists charged today that Moscow is giving the Western powers a run-around in their attempts to settle the Berlin crisis.

The Social Democrat "official" organ of Berlin's Socialist party expressed skepticism over reports that Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov was absent from Moscow on vacation when the Western diplomats were seeking to approach him about the Berlin deadlock.

It is a delaying action by the Kremlin, the newspaper said. "Moscow is talking in riddles about Molotov's absence. It looks like an intended affront to the Western powers."

The United States meanwhile made plans to set up its Berlin air lift amid rumors that the Russians may try to close one or more of three lanes American and British planes use to fly supplies to the blockaded city.

Military air transport command headquarters in Washington said last night it is suspending its regular American trans-continental service over two routes to make 28 large transports available for the air lift.

Russian-controlled newspapers in the city virtually acknowledged today that Moscow is practicing political blackmail with the blockade.

dividers of Berlin but in fact took part in the division of Berlin's police wherefore you cannot now avoid taking responsibility for that act," Kotikov warned.

The Berlin city police under Police President Johannes Stumm moved into the American sector earlier this week to escape the Communist control exercised by Russian troops and Russian-controlled German police.

Air Power Ready

High ranking American officers in Munich, meanwhile, disclosed that America's best air power in Germany has been on the alert for the last few days prepared for any eventuality.

The officers said 30 superfortresses at the Fuerstenfeldbruck air base near Munich have been placed on two hours alert notice. Some 75 fighter planes at nearby Neubiberg are ready to take off at a moment's notice.

In addition 16 jet fighters from the Selfridge Field, Mich., air base also have been alerted for emergency duty. The jets flew the Atlantic to Germany with only 50 rounds for each of their six .50 caliber machineguns but now are loaded to their capacity.

The Anglo-American airlift climbed steadily in its delivery of freight tonnage to Berlin. In the 24 hours ending last night the planes flew 571 flights carrying 3,189 tons.

FARM JOBS FILLED BY OSES OFFICE

No Vacancies Now Known To Employment Agencies.

[illegible] farm jobs were vacant in Marion county today that were known to Fred B Scherff, director of the Ohio State Employment Service office in Marion today.

A drive conducted earlier this week to fill openings of the agricultural needs of the state employment service has been completed, Mr Scherff said.

Four hundred and fifty vacancies were filled during June. Five of these were filled by men under 21 and one by a handicapped veteran.

Of the 450 vacancies filled, more than 21 were filled by men under 21. Three of the jobs were filled by veterans. In all 22 men were placed on farm jobs here, 17 of them veterans, two of them handicapped veterans.

During February the first month in which the placement of farm labor was directed by the OSES office three men were placed on farm jobs one was under 21 one was a veteran, and one was placed in a job on a local fruit farm. During this month the farm labor placement program was taken over by the Ohio State Employment Service from the U. S. Agricultural Extension Service. During the five months a total of 53 jobs were filled Mr Scherff concluded.

Cinderella Contestant Selected by Grange

Miss Isabelle Rinehart was selected to represent Martel Grange in a Buckeye Cinderella contest to be held at a meeting of Pomona Grange Saturday night Aug 7 at Wheeler Grange hall at a meeting of Martel Grange Tuesday July 27 in the Martel school auditorium.

J K Neff presided for the meeting during which a report was given by the sick committee chairman Mrs Kenneth Pangborn and a report was given by Homer Kile on the progress of the CROP program.

A safety program was presented in keeping with National Farm Safety week. The program consisted of group singing of safety songs reading of the epitaphs of accident victims (cemeters by Jay Hedding a paper on Farm Safety" read by Mrs Clyde Logan and a safety quiz.

An announcement was made that Martel Grange will be host to Progressive Grange Tuesday Aug 10 at which time the visiting Grange will present an exchange program. Refreshments were served by Mrs Ed Myers and Mrs Ward Sharrock.

Your Good Health

By DR. HERMAN N BUNDESEN

Appendicitis in a Young Tot

When a child who has seemed quite well suddenly becomes peevish and irritable and then develops fever and vomiting it is time to call the doctor. These may be the earliest signs of an attack of acute appendicitis particularly in a child under three years of age who has a pain in his right side.

Appendicitis is by no means uncommon among youngsters in this age group. If it is present the mother will usually note that the child has paid considerable discomfort in the abdomen within an hour or two of the onset. The baby may do nothing more than hold his hands to his abdomen or he may whimper or cry and say that his stomach is sore.

The pain usually comes on in indefinite spasms during which the child cries. However the pain may be more constant and continuous in some cases. Sometimes the pain may be quite mild. In between these spasms of pain the child may be bright and active.

Unlike the adult in children vomiting is a more reliable symptom than pain. The vomiting may come on before or after the painful attacks. Thus, it is important when these two symptoms occur in a child that a careful examination be carried out at once to determine whether or not appendicitis is present.

Such things as constipation and diarrhea are not usual symptoms in appendicitis in children.

Examination of the child with appendicitis is always a difficult matter because he is fretful and irritable and does not want to be disturbed. His abdomen is tense and it is difficult for the physician to find out whether or not there is spasm of the muscles of the abdomen and tenderness over the appendix. If there is any suspicion that appendicitis is present the best thing to do is to put the child in the hospital at once where a definite diagnosis can be made.

Fortunately this can be done by making a count of the white cells in the blood usually much increased in appendicitis. Of course once it is decided that the child has appendicitis an operation should be carried out at once and the appendix removed.

If the appendix has already broken open and peritonitis or inflammation of the lining membrane of the abdomen has set in it may be necessary to delay operation until improvement in the patient's general condition occurs. During this period of course the patient is given plenty of fluids. Penicillin and the sulfonamide drugs may be given to help overcome the infection.

ISRAEL DEMANDS NEW PALESTINE TERRITORY

By The Associated Press

TEL AVIV ISRAEL July 30 —Israel demanded today new territory in Palestine perhaps including Jerusalem as a result of Jewish victories over Arab armies.

Foreign Minister Moshe Sharett took serious notice of the Jewish demands yesterday in an address before the Israeli state council. He said:

"The Arabs are responsible that the boundaries fixed by the United Nations no longer are practical and we must insist on changing them by adding territories and not by diminishing them."

Sharett said Israel plans immediate steps to place Jerusalem under Jewish sovereignty. Israel he added has rejected Count Folke Bernadotte's plan to demilitarize the Holy City because it provided for eventual Arab rule.

Mile-Long Train Rams Into Standing Coal Cars

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS O July 31—A mile-long string of 128 loaded coal cars pulled by two engines and pushed by two others jammed into a standing cut of 10 other coal cars on a Pennsylvania railroad spur track here today

The second lead engine left the tracks Four cars at the rear were derailed Another coal gondola in the center of the train buckled under pressure spilling tons of coal over the tracks No one was injured

The accident occurred on tracks at Leona Ave just north of the East Fifth Ave crossing Trainmen said the yard track jam would not affect through trains

Former Marion Man Home From Post in Far East

A former Marion man, George Kramer, is home from nearly four years of service in the Far East which began with a career in the Army and extended into civilian service in the post-war years. His first visit since leaving the United States in the fall of 1944, he is dividing his time with his parents, Mr and Mrs. George Kramer and other relatives in Cincinnati, and his uncle, J J Huebner of Hotel Marion and friends here

He made the trip from Manila, Philippine Islands, his headquarters as general manager of the Far East Command Picture Service, under General MacArthur, by Navy, Army and commercial air lines The trip from Honolulu to the California base was made in one of the Army's new C-87's, with a 100-passenger capacity Prior to coming to Marion he spent some time in Washington D C and New York City He plans to return to Manila some time in September

Laying aside his captain's uniform two years ago Mr Kramer signed with the Army in a civilian capacity to continue the special service work he had been doing in seeing that the occupation forces were supplied with American movies and theaters in which to exhibit them

Landed in Japan

Leaving this country with a combat photo detachment his duties kept him on the battle fronts All over the southern Philippines Luzon drives, on Okinawa and into Japan By the end of the war the special service of which he was a part had established 1,562 theaters throughout the Far East At that time Mr Kramer was serving as commanding officer of the Army Film Exchanges in the Pacific

After the cessation of hostilities it was part of his duty to survey the theaters in Korea, and launch the policy of changing the free movies to paid admissions on government installations At present there are 354 theaters operating in Okinawa, Guam, Japan, Korea and the Philippines of this number 62 are under the supervision of Mr Kramer When hostilities ended the Army was operating 1,562 theaters for the men and women of the armed forces The first theater operated on a paying basis was opened in August of 1946 Attendance is limited to those of the armed forces and their dependents United States citizens and government employes

Get Latest Films

Films produced by all the motion picture companies are used by the Picture Service and a constant run of the newest pictures are available American movies are not only popular with the occupation forces but are in high favor with the natives from the Philippines to Korea, Mr Kramer states

An incident which occurred soon after Korea was occupied by General Hodges' forces and the Russians gives an inkling of the latter's taste in movies.

Delegated to round up as many prints of current films as possible in Japan, Mr Kramer was flown to Korea At that time there was high hopes of reaching an amicable American-Russian understanding over that unfortunate country and it was his job to entertain the Russians with American films.

A Betty Grable opus shown the first night was highly popular, but a current Western on the following night failed to click By popular demand the Betty Grable feature was shown again on the third night and for every remaining showing of his seven-day show The former captain observed that Korea might not be the "hot spot" on the international scene that it is today if Miss Grable had been sent to personally negotiate with the Russians.

Rest Severe MacArthur

In speaking of General MacArthur Kramer says he is virtually revered by the Far East and he regards him as the biggest man in the picture today. Inflation in China he described as "rugged in comparison with his recollection of civilian life before his induction in 1941. Inflation there has reached fantastic proportions he relates, and by way of illustration quoted a four-day hotel bill at the Cathay Hotel in Shanghai at $5,962,000 in Chinese nationa currency This, he says, is high, even in solid American dollars coming to between $80 and $90 at the exchange rate then quoted

With Communism on the aggressive in the Far East as everywhere else in the world, Mr Kramer foresees as one of the hazards of the future a dollar famine in the Orient. American merchandise is so far superior to the native handmade articles that the native population are willing to pay their valuable American dollars for American products When the dollar supply diminishes, these people will no longer be able to support the standard of living many have grown accustomed to and the unrest that will follow will offer fertile ground for Communistic attack

Prior to entering the service Mr Kramer was on the staff of the display advertising department of The Star He entered service in April of 1942 as a private attended officer candidate school at Fort Monmouth, N J completing his training in the signal corps in December of that year

Former Countess, Visiting in Marion Enjoys U.S. After Facing War Horrors

By EDNA S. DUTTON

The United States is the land of the free in every sense of the word to Mrs. B. Woodrow Pennington of Washington, D. C., who with her husband and their seven months-old son, George Leonard Pennington, are visiting Mr. Pennington's brother-in-law and sister-in-law, Mrs. George Pennington of 655 Congress street.

Mrs. Pennington is the former Countess Sophie Thun Hohenstein, daughter of Count Paul and Countess Thun Hohenstein of Vienna. She became Mrs. Pennington about one and one half years ago and has been making her home in this country for about a year. Her father is engaged in writing books, book reviews, theater and art reviews, short stories and his work has appeared in both German and Austrian newspapers.

Likes Washington

The former countess is finding much to keep her forget the war years in her new home. She thinks the nation's capital is a beautiful city and each day finds something new to add to her love for her country by marriage.

Like others in her native land she and her family saw suffering and devastation. Her father spent weeks in a German prison and also in a hospital, her family's estates were taken over by the enemy and in some instances reduced to ruins, a brother was killed in service and she and her sister fled from country to country to escape servitude in enemy territory.

Spent Year as Fugitives

An order to appear for service under the Nazis sent Mrs. Pennington and her sister, Eleanor from their home and for a year they rode their bicycles thumbed rides, escaped the eagle eye of officers and those in charge of trains, climbed gates at stations because they faced prison if they were found without tickets, worked in farm fields and at times stood in the shadow of prisons.

Because they could speak many different languages they were able to convince those who might prove unfriendly they were "on their side" and frequently they met up with friends in various countries who made things a bit easier. Despite efforts to contact their family through messages sent by friends, the messages never reached them and for a year their parents were not aware of their travels.

Lives Often in Danger

Despite the fact that they were given help by friendly soldiers and were able to talk themselves out of some difficult situations, they frequently were targets for unfriendly airmen and bombings. One of their most difficult jobs was driving a team of valuable horses some 200 miles from the German French frontier just before the invasion of Germany.

"We had decided not to risk it it was too dangerous, but when we saw how disappointed the people were, we changed our minds," the former countess related.

Mr. Pennington and his wife met in the French zone in Austria at the end of the war. Mrs. Pennington at that time was employed as an interpreter in the housing office and Mr. Pennington came there as a liason officer. Their son is named for their brothers, George Pennington and Leonard Thun-Hohenstein, both of whom were killed in service.

The attractive former countess who, despite her experiences does not look her 25 years is most attractive and possesses a charming personality. Tall and slender, she is regal in stature has dark hair, which she wears very plain and an enviable tan. Her eyes sparkle and dance whether she is relating her experiences of a few years back or talking about her adopted country. A delightful conversationalist she leaves one reluctant to end the interview.

Mr. Pennington who served as a first lieutenant in World War II went overseas with the U. S. infantry early in 1945. He is a brother of Dr. William Pennington and also was the late Dr. Margaret Pennington, practiced medicine here before and for a short time following World War II and now lives in Virginia. He is engaged in the shoe business in Washington.

Mrs. Pennington would like to go back for a visit, but that is uncertain. Her sister Eleanor who studied at universities in Freiburg and Vienna has received her degree in philosophy and is planning to come to the United States on a scholarship. Besides her parents and sister Mrs. Pennington has a brother, Johann Ernst, a student in high school who is looking forward to a career in law. Mrs. Pennington herself has ambitions to write a book—about the United States and the people of course.

TRUMAN GIVEN TIME ON RADIO

Administration Spokesmen To Be Heard; GOP Barrage Continues.

By JOSEPH NOLAN
United Press Correspondent

The Democratic national committee revealed today that the National Broadcasting Company has agreed to give the administration another chance to tell the people what it thinks about the Republicans.

It said the network had offered Democrat spokesmen free time during the popular evening listening hours to answer Republicans who have been broadcasting bitter denunciations of President Truman's anti-inflation proposals.

The GOP had obtained radio time on the grounds that the network had broadcast Mr. Truman's original speech before the joint session of congress last Tuesday.

Committee Protests

The Democratic national committee protested that Mr. Truman's talk came shortly after noon, when most of the listening public was at work. They demanded some night time hours, too.

The national committee said that the American Broadcasting company which also gave free time to the Republicans, hasn't made any new offer to the Democrats.

Last night House Speaker Joseph W. Martin of Massachusetts and Sen. Eugene Millikin (R) of Colorado continued the GOP's radio barrage against Mr. Truman. In a broadcast (ABC) they accused the President of a "flagrant abuse" of his emergency powers in his recall of congress to an extra session.

Like other GOP leaders they told the President that he will not get the wage-price controls he claims are so necessary to halt the spiral of inflation.

Also On Political Scene

Meanwhile there were these other political developments:

Dixiecrats—Sen. Lister Hill (D), of Alabama joined his junior colleague Sen. John J. Sparkman (D) of Alabama in support of the anti-Truman Dixiecrat ticket of Gov. J. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina and Gov. Fielding L. Wright of Mississippi.

Truman—Leslie Biffle former senate secretary and a close adviser to President Truman on political matters will conduct a one-man tour through six states in an effort to evaluate Truman sentiment in the Ohio and Mississippi river areas. He will visit West Virginia, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri and Kentucky.

All Politics Aside

EARLY in 1946 congress passed a law declaring the policy of the federal government was to do everything in its power to keep employment, production and purchasing power as high as possible

The law was a toned-down version of a slam-bang New Deal proposal to set up national planning. Congress wanted no part of that, but in fear of a postwar slump it did want to take advantage of coordinated information about economic conditions

One of the principal effects of the new law—the employment act of 1946—was to set up a council of economic advisers charged with the duty of keeping the Chief Executive informed The law also required the Chief Executive to pass along this information to congress in official reports. The fourth report was made Friday Like those which preceded it, the report reflects the views not only of the official council of advisers but of cabinet members, heads of independent agencies and Mr Truman himself.

In the first report, published in January, 1947, Mr. Truman warned of depression unless the country achieved unity of economic purpose. In the second, published in July of the same year, he wrote: "The unprecedented prosperity of our nation must not be a cause for idle self-congratulation. Full employment at a high price level is being sustained by the reconversion demands of business, by the backlog demands of consumers, by extensive use of savings and credit, and by an extraordinary excess of exports over imports. These are temporary props to our economic system."

In the third report, at the beginning of this year, Mr. Truman repeated that prosperity was being supported by a wave of inflation which "already has caused serious hardship and presents grave concern ... the future." In the fourth report the warning is repeated "Inflationary conditions endanger both our domestic strength and our place in world affairs," Mr. Truman declares. "Until the very eve of an economic collapse many people are apt to grow more and more confident about the soundness of the economy and the indefinite continuance of the boom It is not too late for preventive measures"

These are reminders—if any be needed—that more is at stake in the outcome of the inflation issue in congress than politics. Mr Truman has played politics with inflation by claiming political credit for inflated wages and farm income while blaming the opposition for the inflated prices which made high wages and food costs inevitable, and is playing politics when he talks about price rollbacks and restoration of OPA

But there is no politics in the fact his advisers have warned of the consequences of runaway inflation; that Marriner Eccles, former chairman of the federal reserve board, has testified before the senate banking and currency committee that he saw danger ahead, and that the present chairman of the board, Thomas B. McCabe, has testified before the same committee that price control is not the answer.

All politics aside, there are certain obvious things that could be done to check inflation Further expansion of consumer credit could be limited Federal reserve requirements could be raised to restrict new bank loans These are basic measures on which agreement can be reached outside the political arena—bipartisan agreements. These are signs that the special session of congress may see them in that light and try to do something about inflation before it adjourns.

Does Russia Seek War?

ONE aspect of the Berlin situation too often overlooked is this There is no sign of war preparation by the Russians—no heavy movement of troops and material into Germany. If the Russians see any danger of a war starting at Berlin, they give no evidence of it.

Allied military experts say it would take six weeks to two months for the Russians to assemble at the Elbe the necessary men and arms for a drive to the coast. Thus, while the situation is admittedly tense, there is no evidence the Russians would build up an incident to touch off a war.

Fortunately, American talk of ramming through to Berlin with an armored train has dwindled It would have been an unwise move under any circumstances Armored trains are the most readily immobilized vehicles of war A hundred feet of track torn up or a bridge down, and they become nothing more than redoubts in hostile territory

One salutary effect of the Berlin disagreement is that it has made Allied military men talk seriously of what they would do in case of a war with Russia. No such plans are on paper but they are closer to realization now. Britain, France, Canada, Belgium and the Netherlands are organizing a defense setup which looks good to most Americans, including those who oppose American participation in such an alliance.

Since 1920, motor equipment has replaced enough horses in the United States to release 56 million acres formerly used to grow horse feed—about 20 per cent of U.S. crop land.

Scanning the Record

By George E. Sokolsky

The Little Red House—and Philadelphia

UP here in Sandusfield, we go in for culture in a big way; that is, those of us who do not till the soil and chop down the trees for lumber And that goes back a long time to the days of Mark Hopkins, Oliver Wendell Holmes—not the justice but the philosopher—Herman Melville of "Moby Dick," William Cullen Bryant, Henry Wadsworth Longfellow to say nothing of the Sedgwick clan who dominated Stockbridge as the Atlantic Monthly was the personality of Ellery Sedgwick

SOKOLSKY

So last Saturday we foregathered at the little red house where Nathaniel Hawthorne conceived the Tanglewood Tales and where often Longfellow, Melville, Fanny Kemble and Hawthorne met to talk but even more to store in their memories the impress of the beauties of the Berkshires and of each other's personality

The little red house has been restored externally by the National Federation of Music Clubs under the leadership of Mrs Guy Gannett, wife of the Maine publisher, and a gracious and devoted lady Manning, Hawthorne was there to represent his grandfather, Nathaniel, and Henry Wadsworth Longfellow Dana, whose maternal grandfather was the poet and whose paternal grandfather wrote "Two years Before the Mast," delivered a brilliant and witty address prepared as only Hardy can when he takes the trouble, which is not often enough

The New England Spirit

We were blessed with the best of Berkshire weather, as we sat in the shadow of monument mountain and looked across the lake and listened to Serge Koussevitzky accept the little house which is to be used as studios for musicians who come to Tanglewood to improve themselves and this is so important, because out of Tanglewood will in time come American composers, American conductors, and American artists and all the internationalism of its atmosphere will go by the board For no one can be in this New England long without becoming part of its rock and soil, without feeling the three centuries of America in the marrow of his bones

Just as in the middle nineteenth century, this very place produced for this country a lasting, indigenous literature, so are we now on the threshold of finding here a lasting, indigenous American music. That indeed is a pot of gold

As I sat upon a rock, upon which creeped myrtle and rose I could not help but think that at that very moment were gathered in Philadelphia others who also called themselves Americans but who, somehow, had been cut off at the roots, or who coming latterly, had no depth to their roots And while we steeped ourselves richly in the lore of our own land, they were shrieking foully against their mother country and, gazing upon her beauties, saw only nettles and thistles while the mirage from afar was richly verdant

Resulting Balaam

Yet their curses will wither on the vine, I recalled that Balaam, when pressured to curse, sang

"How goodly are thy tents, O Jacob, and thy tabernacles, O Israel!

"As the valleys are they spread forth, as gardens by the river's side, as the trees of Lign Aloes which the Lord hath planted and as cedar trees beside the waters."

For who can curse such a country as this and who can be its enemy? How varied are the ways of its people and there are none to order them to do this and that and to have no will of their own. Those in Philadelphia were free to sweep themselves in shrill hate and we at Tanglewood were free to worship America's glorious past and to restore her monuments And in a thousand places men and women were free to do as they minded with none to force them to do otherwise And in a thousand places, often obscure, with none to write their histories, were, at that very moment, men and women devoted voluntarily to good and righteous service

That is America and we who abide in these hills feel it so strongly, for here Longfellow caught the lines of Evangeline and here Hawthorne came after he had already written "The Scarlet Letter," and here Mark Hopkins sat on a log and founded a college It is in these hills that one senses the manhood that produced this nation.

Daily Bible Thought

This was a command to attempt the impossible, but that is the habitual message of the Bible. It has made Bedouin slaves into a great people "Speak to the children of Israel that they go forward"—Ex. 14 15.

On the Graveyard Shift

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK

THE city is a vast artificial heart that throbs in tempo to the pattern of normal daily life

But many who live within it have to break that pattern to keep the city going They are the army of night workers who must clean that gigantic heart, guard it, and refuel it for the strains of the next day

The job turns a man into an owl, but no one can know some of the strange corners of life unless he has served his time at night work.

In newspaper work this assignment is known as "the graveyard shift," and it is aptly named There is a mystic affinity between night and death

HAL BOYLE

For three years before the war I worked with one of these "skeleton crews" of newsmen, who feel and record the pulse of the sleeping city between midnight and 8 o'clock in the morning.

One of the joys of newspaper life is supposed to be that you meet "such interesting people" And it is But at those hours the people abroad are largely fellow workers, wandering drunks and bums, or police and ambulance cases. You come to wonder why so many people prefer to get robbed, slashed in saloons, beat up their wives, dive out windows, crack their skulls on sidewalks, start fires and have babies—all between midnight and dawn.

On Breakfast Schedule

Working overnight is a three-breakfast life You eat one in the morning another when you wake up at night. And if you go out for a snack at 4 a. m., the restaurants have already put out their breakfast menus

It has other drawbacks for the family man Husband and wife lead a separate existence She goes to bed when he goes to work, she gets up to start her household chores when he returns home to bed This puzzles the children

"Isn't daddy funny?" said the small son of a "graveyard shifter" to the mother. "When he comes home in the morning, he says 'goodnight' to me And when he gets up at night he says, 'good morning'"

Sleep is the big problem to the overnight worker Some men simply can't stand to turn their lives topsy-turvy I knew one who lost 25 pounds in six months and had to quit But no matter how long you stay at it, you never solve the problem of rest. Sleep comes in cycles You'll sleep well for several weeks Then will come a week or two when earplugs and eyeshades are of no avail For no reason except perhaps rebellious body chemistry sleep simply won't come

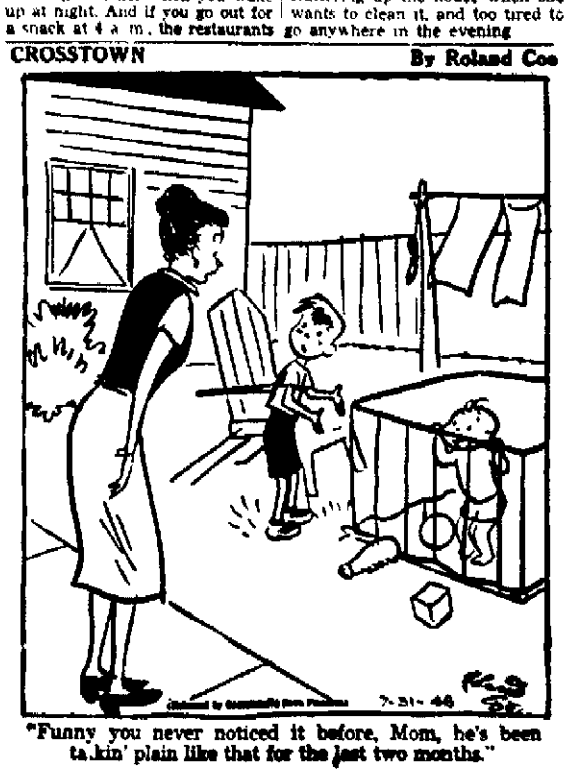
Sleep Is a Problem

This intermittent struggle for sleep gives the night worker his typical philosophy of tired melancholy or—in some cases—of chronic irritation. Lack of sun, too little sleep leave him under the constant threat of anemia

Many men prefer overnight work despite their fight to get enough sleep. It has a lonely freedom, because there aren't so many bosses around They never get caught in crowds, they can find a place to park their cars free They can go to the ball games or the racetracks in the afternoons—A real luxury They can get to the movie houses and theaters at matinee prices

But wives never care for this routine The old man is a nuisance, cluttering up the house when she wants to clean it, and too tired to go anywhere in the evening

CROSSTOWN By Roland Coe



"Funny you never noticed it before, Mom, he's been talkin' plain like that for the last two months."

Speaking of Clambakes

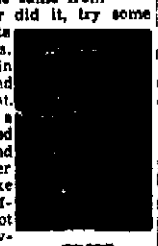
By Frank Tripp

A GREAT institution is the American clambake Born in New England, second cousin to the shore dinner, it is known to most masculinity across the land

It gets pretty well mussed up, in some places Almost any picnic that offers clams get called a clambake.

Just why the name persists is a puzzle because nowhere do clams get baked If you ever tried to really bake a clam, chances are you ended up wondering where the name came from

If you never did it, try some time Don't waste many clams, just put one in the oven and turn on the heat. You'll get out a stinky, cracked clam shell and a hunk of leather that looks like junior's shoe after the dog got through chewing it. And equally edible.



TRIPP

Clams are steamed, of course: steamed open, which is the only way most folks can open hard clams No doubt the name clambake came from ground-baked fish, which isn't exactly baked either, but it would sound funny and unappetizing to speak of steamed fish.

In spite of the incongruity of it all, fish and clams taste best when "baked" in the ground together in a rock-lined hole

Anybody who owns or can prempt one square yard of land with some stones on it can holebake fish with an old rug, some dry wood and a match The flossy cookbooks notwithstanding, what comes forth is fish at its best. "Baking" clams is not so easy.

'Twould be presumptuous to tell shore dwellers and real fishermen with beach and seaweed at their command how to bake fish and clams in the ground. It would be courting bundles of correspondence, for almost every one of them has his own trick way which is "best."

For land-locked fish lovers, hole-baked fish is relatively simple once you have taken the patience to get a pit of rocks sufficiently hot under a brisk fire, burned to hot coals for a few hours. Sweep out the coals, salt and wrap the fish in wet cloth, toss it in, cover the hole with damp canvas, or something to hold the heat. Cover it all with something dry. Seal around the edges with sand or dirt. If the dirt thereabouts is gravel or sandy, not clay or dusty, cover the whole mound with it.

Then light your pipe and let the heat go out of the rocks into the fish. The baking time will depend upon the size of the fish You can't overdo it, unless you like raw fish.

There's no real point in "baking" clams alone underground You just lose the juice and it goes into the ground rather than to flavor fish, chicken, corn sweet potatoes, lobster or what-not, as in the real shore dinner.

Might better honestly steam clams in a covered kettle and save the delicious juice. Call it a clambake if you like but no matter how you kid the natives it's clamsteam regardless

And it's silly as Simon to try to steam clams in the ground without plenteous wet sea grass or its equivalent to impart the steam to steam them Because clams won't bake into anything but leather slugs

To some strange people clams were never intended to eat anyway just intended to grow shells to make driveways. The such miss the acme of sea delicacy, an occasional bellyache and the conviviality which invariably sits alongside in a keg.

Probably to the end of time folks will go right on eating steamed clams and insisting they ate them at a clambake.

Fruit Research

The Agriculture Department is looking for new uses for citrus fruits and an improved means of squeezing out the juice of the pear and of fruit wastes.

Two research projects, the department said, are making the search. Both are operating through the department's Bureau of Agricultural and Industrial Chemistry.

E A. Meyer, administrator of the research and marketing act program, said the rapidly increasing production of citrus fruits intensifies the need for finding new outlets

He said new uses will be sought through research into

Development of commercial scale methods for the manufacture of citrus powders of higher quality, wider usefulness and better keeping qualities than those now available.

Methods of citrus juice pasteurization.

The significance of enzymes in causing citrus products to deteriorate after they have been pasteurized.

Development of a better way of testing citrus fruit for maturity.

With regard to the project to recover juice from pears and other fruit waste research has already shown the value of pear juice from canner's waste as a medium for growing feed and possibly food yeast, Mr. Meyer said.

The problem now is to develop a satisfactory continuous type of press to do the job, he said, and if this can be done, it will solve a serious waste disposal problem and put to use about 50,000 tons of waste annually at pear processing plants. Work on such a press will be conducted at the western regional laboratory at Albany, Calif.

Big City Mayors' Pay

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO—Mayors of the 13 largest cities in the U S are paid an average of $17,236 a year to head their municipal governments.

This is revealed in a survey of mayors' pay and powers just completed by the American Municipal Association The "Big 13" are those U S. cities with populations of more than 500,000, except Washington, D C., governed by congress

The mayors of Detroit and New York are each paid $25,000—highest for mayors in the U S. Runners-up are San Francisco and Boston with salaries of $20,000 Chicago, Los Angeles and Philadelphia pay $18,000

Among others are Baltimore—$15 000; Buffalo—$12 000 Cleveland and Pittsburgh—$15 000, and St. Louis—$10,000 Milwaukee's mayor is being paid $13,074 which includes a 1947 "cost of living" bonus of $774.

As top administrative officers, big city mayors head local governments which really are "big business." General revenues of New York approach a billion annually Chicago's 1948 budget involves appropriations of almost 292 million

The average salary for mayors of the 23 cities in the 250,000 to 500,000 population group is $7,167, the survey showed.

Would Ban Wagner's Music

By The Associated Press

WARSAW—The Ministry of Arts and Culture says Polish philharmonic orchestras should avoid playing music "of such authors who proved to have had the same ideology as Hitler, such as Wagner, or actively participated in the Nazi movement, such as Richard Strauss."

Newspapers recently criticized the playing of German music at Polish concerts

The business of issuing new postage stamps has now become a major Federal industry and we're for an announcement of the following fresh ones any minute

The Willis Cheever stamp honoring the first man to hold an oyster fry on this continent.

The Luke McLuke stamp commemorating the first public tryout of the fly-swatter on American soil

The Tomato Industry stamp This will recognize the contribution made to the drugstore sandwich by the tomato industry enabling it to eliminate everything else except lettuce and mayonnaise

The Tea-Bag stamp This will be launched to pay tribute to all makers of tea bags but will, we hope, ignore the people responsible for what is put into them

The Electric Rabbit stamp commemorating the birth of dog racing in the Western Hemisphere

Washington Irving Wilson—who honors them through postage stamps any more?

Elmer Twitchell has just seen "The Babe Ruth Story" and is going to do four biographical movies They follow

1—The Life of Stymie with Lassie playing the horse

2—The Leo Durocher Story with Barry Fitzgerald playing Lippy Leo

3—The DiMaggio Saga In this one Mickey Rooney will play Joe

4—Across the Ice With Sonja Henie (No selection set to play Sonja but everything points to Kate Smith provided it is ascertained that she never skated in her life)

That Was Summer

By TRUMAN TWILL

"Now that summer's almost over" someone was overheard saying the other day.

And stores are beginning to show fall fashions

Football players are starting to bump heads, to get them hardened for autumnal collisions

Vacationists are scrambling to get under the wire before Labor Day

School kids are complaining about their "last few weeks of liberty" as they sourly study the calendar

Trees are noticeably shedding their tired leaves before bracing themselves to endure what's left of summer

Here and there in a vacant lot a baseball game is being crowded out by a half dozen kids who want to play football instead.

Field corn is in tassel and the first roasting ears have come into the market

War planners are pursing their lips solemnly over discussions of the two unconquerable generals who must be dealt with in all military campaigns that begin in the fall—Generals Mud and Winter

A sharpeyed observer of bird migrations reports the first scattered flocks to the south

Heating installations are being hustled along to beat the first cold nights in September.

Summer-weight suits that looked fresh and new a few weeks ago are wrinkled and baggy.

Human skins tanned to the rich, deep brown of 20-year-old saddles also are looking wrinkled and baggy

Ten million men are saying that golf can still be a lot of fun even if they never break 90

Summer is almost over subject to the fixation that it does not start officially until the last few days in June and ends officially on Labor Day—a little more than two months altogether

There have been short summers before, but this one sets the all-time record It was snappier than a note from Molotov It was quicker than a Hollywood smooch There was no more to it than a bite of cotton candy. Its demise was as unexpected as the suicide of a glamor girl

In a few more days it will be autumn, then winter. Why is it that no one ever figures out how to end winter while the meteorites are still wondering if it really has been?

To Mark 40th Anniversary Of Trinity Baptist Church

Trinity Baptist church will observe tomorrow the fortieth anniversary of its present house of worship building.

The first service was conducted on Aug 2, 1908, in the social room on the ground floor. Services were held there until the completion of the church and the dedication of the sanctuary.

Rev George E Bernard was the pastor at that time. A. S. Keeler, the clerk, compiled records which were placed in the corner stone. The building committee consisted of D F Edwards, E. Durfee and Rev Barnard.

Tomorrow the pastor, Rev J B Holloway will have as his sermon subject "After 40 Years." E O Uncapher will give a historical sketch of the church.

Forty-year members will be recognized and greetings from former members and pastors will be read. The choir will present special music, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Cecil Davis.

Wednesday night, the annual family night of the congregation will be held, combining the midweek prayer service and meeting of the Woman's society.

Epworth Speaker

Rev Lowell G McCoy of Columbus will be the guest minister tomorrow at Epworth Methodist church in the absence of Dr V E Busler, pastor, who is on vacation. A former army chaplain, Rev McCoy is now an instructor at Ohio State university, and is studying for further degrees. A group from the Youth Fellowship of the church will leave tomorrow to attend the Lima district youth institute at Lakeside through Aug 7. Miss Margaret Huffman, director of religious education of Epworth, is on the institute faculty as teacher for the course "Jesus' Way in Our Fellowship Planning."

Mrs. Arthur Smith will be the "camp mother" for the group and Miss Mary Jane Llewellyn and Ronald Powell will be counsellors. Attending from the Epworth youth group will be Bonnie Harris, John Cheney, Charlene Long, Mary Lou Faulkner, Anna Faulkner, Ruth Clutter, Mary Ann Wilhelm, Sally Youngblood, Etha Mae Ludwig, Paul and Bob Ludwig, Gloria Reams, Jean Davis, Mary Jean Smith, Dick Lattimore, John Keegan, Dick Banning, Jim Harmon, Arlene Houpt, Tom Indoe, Joan Buller and Marie Gantt.

New Pastor Here

A full time minister has been engaged by the congregation of the Church of Christ at Main and Farming streets, John W Rockhold, and he and Mrs. Rockhold and their son will move to Marion in the near future. Mr Rockhold will preach at worship services of the church tomorrow at 10:30 a. m. and 8 p. m. The family will come here from Parkersburg, W. Va. The new Marion pastor has been engaged in church work a number of years and has conducted evangelistic campaigns in various parts of the country. He was in Marion for a series of special meetings at the Church of Christ in May and has just closed a similar effort in southern Ohio. His son will be a high school senior in the fall. Besides the worship services, the congregation holds Bible study each Sunday at 10 a. m. and midweek services on Wednesday nights. There has been no full time pastor of the church for some time.

Calvary Service

At the evening worship service of Calvary Evangelical United Brethren church tomorrow, there will be special music featured, and an appropriate message will be given by the pastor, Rev R W Faulkner. Piano prelude will be by Mrs Fred Dutt, followed by singing of choruses, "testimony and praise," electric Hawaiian guitar numbers by Miss Marguerite Price and Mrs. Hazel Price and vocal music by Miss Betty Plantz. Summer events of church organizations next week will include a wiener roast of the Intermediate Girls' Sunday school class Tuesday evening at McKinley park and watermelon social for Emma Berger and Men's Bible classes Thursday night at the Lyal Messenger home on Harding Highway east. Plans are being made for the annual Summer Christmas Tree program Thursday night, Aug 12, and for a Sunday school picnic Aug 25.

Rev. Lamo Beesmy of Upper Sandusky will be in charge of services of the Maranatha Bible church here tomorrow in the absence of the pastor, Rev Earl L. Holliday, who is on vacation. At the morning service, Rev Beasmy will preach and conduct communion following, and he will speak at the evening evangelistic service.

Revival services of the Mt Zion Baptist church on Senate street will open Monday night directed by the pastor, Rev. J. C. Collins.

The fourth in a series of sermons on Bible prophecy dealing with the Christian attitude toward anti-Semitism, will be given by Dr C. E. Hershey, pastor, at the evening worship hour of Emmanuel Baptist church tomorrow. The sermon has been designed to answer accusations that control of industries and government departments is in the hands of one racial group, he stated. Howard Jones will lead a song service, and special music will be presented.

Music by the First Evangelical United Brethren church orchestra will be presented as the evening worship hour program at the church tomorrow. The orchestra, directed by Mrs. A. E. VanAsbeck is composed of 15 musicians, and Mrs. VanAsbeck is pianist for the group. Numbers will include overtures and marches, as well as religious sacred compositions. Featured soloists will be Mrs. A. L. Kelley, violinist, and John Barnhart, pianist.

"Love" is the subject of the lesson-sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist Sunday. It will have for the Golden Text: "We have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him." (I John 4:16.)

NO WALDO SERVICE

There will be no services at St Paul's Lutheran church, Waldo Sunday nor the following Sunday, Aug 8 as the pastor, Rev C A Long is on vacation.

Hilton Corp. Announces Sale of Columbus Hotel

By The United Press

CHICAGO, July 31 - The Hilton Hotel Corp announced today that it had sold its interest in the Neil House at Columbus, O. and acquired the Palm Beach Biltmore at Palm Beach, Fla.

C N Hilton, president, said the value placed on the Neil House was "in excess of $2,000,000."

Hilton said the Neil House was acquired by a syndicate headed by H L Ludwig and including H. B Fuerstenberg of Chicago, and Frank W Donova and Roger L Stevens of Detroit.

The Neil House no longer will be a part of the Hilton chain, he said, but the manager, Joseph A Harper will continue with the corporation in a new assignment. No other changes in personnels will be made at the Neil House.

BUREAU SAYS RETAIL BUSINESS UP IN OHIO

By The United Press

WASHINGTON, July 31—The census bureau reported today that retail business is running above last year in all Ohio cities and above the national average in most of them.

The bureau report on retail trade covering the first six months of this year compared with the same period last year showed all large Ohio cities had larger increases than the national average of a seven per cent increase, except Akron and Dayton.

Toledo's 15 per cent increase topped the Ohio list.

The report disclosed that Ohioans are buying more automobiles, more liquor and more building materials than other Americans in general—compared to last year and are spending more money for food and clothing.

Liquor store sales were off three per cent nationally, but were up from nine to 12 per cent in all Ohio cities surveyed except Akron. Restaurant and bar business was off slightly nationally and in some Ohio cities, but was up in Youngstown, Cleveland, Columbus and Toledo.

In total retail sales increases for the six months, Toledo was followed by Columbus and Youngstown, which were up 11 per cent each. Cleveland, Cincinnati and Canton were up eight per cent each, Dayton was up five per cent and Akron was up four per cent.

3 Traffic Arrests Reported by Police

Three traffic arrests and three traffic accidents were reported by city police today.

Richard Jacob Casperson of 298 Green street was arrested at 9 a. m. today on West George street on a charge of operation of an automobile while intoxicated.

At 3:00 a. m. today Jack Stephen Bevan of near Marion was arrested on West Center street charged with operation of an automobile with no muffler.

For driving without an Ohio chauffeur's license Ralph Edward Gibbs of 318 Glad street was fined $10 and costs by municipal court today.

At 3:25 a. m. today a collision occurred between cars driven by George A. Himmenger of Nevada and C. Z. Zachman of 722 South Prospect street at Delaware avenue and Walnut street. Both vehicles were damaged.

Cars driven by Clarence Rufus Carr of 314 North State street and Denver Kenneth Scott of 206 Bain avenue collided at West Pleasant street between Main and Prospect streets at 4:40 p. m. yesterday. The Carr vehicle was slightly damaged.

The top of a truck driven by Robert L. Midlane of 833 East Center street cut an electric wire for the bridge lights at the Leader street viaduct at 8:17 p. m. yesterday.

The Bible

By DR. C. E. HERSHEY
Pastor of Emmanuel Baptist Church

"Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path."
Psalm 119:105

IN A RECENT POLL conducted by Christian Life and Times among American colleges and universities it was found that only 30 per cent of these students of higher education believe the Bible to be the infallible Word of God. Only sixty-six per cent said that they ever read the Bible even occasionally! Many expressed adverse opinions of the authority and infallibility of the Bible. Many expressed disbelief. These statistics prove that we are living in the "perilous times" of the last days of grace when we see such appalling conditions existing.

Notwithstanding the results of this recent poll, even today the Bible stands preeminently above all other books. It is printed in 940 different languages and dialects, in whole or in part. In one year approximately 30,500,000 copies were published and distributed. Although the Bible has had friends who have even died in its defense, in the past as well as today, it has had many enemies. This fact is sufficient to convince one that it is a remarkable Book. If it were an ordinary book, it would have ceased to exist or to have influence upon mankind for this is the ultimate fate of all man-made books.

Many wicked and ungodly men have tried to destroy the Bible but God prevented them from doing so. This is another proof that it is the Word of God and that He is watching over it. About one hundred and fifty years ago a French infidel named Voltaire, declared that the Bible would soon become obsolete, and there would not be a single copy in existence. Today his former home is used by the British and Foreign Bible Society as a repository for Bibles! The person who fights against the Bible, fights against God. Anyone who tries to discredit the Bible, seeks to discredit the Word of God, for the Bible is the Word of God. He has seen fit to give man an all-sufficient revelation in writing, a perfect guide in all matters of faith and practice. Every word has been chosen by the Holy Spirit, therefore it is verbally inspired and absolutely infallible - this Bible of ours, regardless of poll opinion!

The sixty-six books of the Bible were written by some forty men of the Jewish nation to whom the revelations of God were committed. These men spoke as they were moved by the Holy Ghost, and not as they willed. "The prophecy came not in old time by the will of man, but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Spirit." 2 Peter 1:21. These men of God through whom the Holy Spirit imparted the mind and will of God were chosen from all walks of life. Some were kings, statesmen, lawyers, and men of learning; others were farmers, shepherds, fishermen, politicians and men without much education. But the writings of the latter class are just as perfect as those of the former proving that, "All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness." 2 Timothy 3:16.

God used such men as Moses, Samuel, David, Solomon, Isaiah and the prophets to speak to the people and write the words which He gave, but it was God who did the talking, and not the prophets. Human wisdom and the will of man had nothing whatsoever to do with either the thoughts or the language of the Bible. This does not mean, however, that God spoke everything that is written in the Bible. Some of the things were spoken by men, both good and bad, some by angels, and some by demons, some statements were true, and some were false. But it does mean that God had these things which were spoken by Himself, or by men, or demons, or angels, recorded accurately as they were spoken, so that we have a true account of the facts which God would have us know for our instruction and admonition.

The Bible was not written in a day, or a year, or a hundred years. It was nearly 1600 years from the time when the book of Genesis was written by Moses until the book of Revelation was written by John. These forty writers had not opportunity to confer together and yet there is perfect harmony throughout the Book. These facts are proof that there was one Master Mind that directed the whole and that mind was the mind of the eternal God.

Since the enemies of the Bible never hesitate to attack it, believers ought to be as quick to defend it. It has been proven today that when the Bible is examined fearlessly, with an open mind, in the light of available facts which are easily verified, it is found to be absolutely infallible. Every criticism of the Bible is based upon misrepresentation of what is written in the Book. Opposition to the Scriptures is not based on intelligence, on higher education, or on science, but on some strange prejudice which springs from "an evil heart of unbelief." Heb. 3:12. Critics of the Word do not deal in facts, for there are none at their disposal. They use ridicule, falsehood, misrepresentation, hearsay, derision, and every other cheap weapon they can find. The truth of the matter is that an evil, supernatural power blinds the minds of all unbelievers, making it impossible for them to come to any fair, open-minded verdict on the subject.

A territory-wide plebiscite held in Hawaii in 1940 resulted in a two-to-one vote in favor of statehood.

YOUR HOME TODAY AND TOMORROW

Cape Cod Cottage Has Large Living Room

One of the interesting features of this small, compact house is the absence of much partitioning in the interior This helps considerably in the cost of building

The very large living room runs into the dining area so as to create an air of great proportions when you enter the house The minimum kitchen offers an electric range sink, and single tub The covers of the fixtures furnish ample working space, and well arranged cabinets above and below, provide good storage

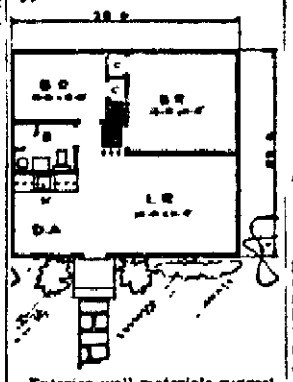
A bathroom with shower, and two bedrooms, one single and the other double, complete the interior arrangement

There is a large attic available which may be reached through one of the closets, and which will furnish a tremendous amount of storage space

The exterior of this house is well treated architecturally and it would be difficult to suggest any change in the architect's ideas As a matter of economy the very large bank of windows shown might be reduced, but beyond this there is nothing to suggest

White walls and trim, dark slate-covered roof and heavy varnished door make an attractive appearance



Exterior wall materials suggested are shingles, clapboard or flush siding

TEAKWOOD COFFEE TABLES

Q. We have some teakwood that we are making into a coffee table Can you tell me how to finish it in order to keep its natural color?

A. If you cannot have the work done professionally, you would find a simple way to refinish the table would be with clear lacquer or two coats of clear quick-drying varnish The first coat should be smoothed by sanding lightly with fine sandpaper and dusting off finishes are frequently used on fine woods This is more laborious than the varnish work however You might also consider having a glass top made for the table Any finish is going to darken the wood to some extent.

KRUPP GIVEN 12-YEAR TERM

Sentence Munitions Head, 10 Directors for Exploitation of Slave Labor.

By The Associated Press

NUERNBERG GERMANY July 31—Alfried Krupp Von Bohlen und Halbach was convicted on two war crimes counts and sentenced today to 12 years in prison

Krupp 41 year old heir to the Krupp munitions works was convicted of exploiting slave labor and plundering Nazi occupied lands The U S military court convicted 10 other Krupp directors on the slave count five of them on the plunder count, and acquitted one of the 12 defendants

Judge H C Anderson of Jackson Tenn who presided over the three-man court sentenced the other 10 convicted directors to terms ranging from 12 years to two years and 10 months

A 50,000-word judgment said the directors of the Ruhr gun plant backbone of the German war machine since the days of Bismarck committed crimes even in excess of Hitler's orders

Of the 12 defendants only Karl Heinrich Pfirsch 71 dean of the board and a gun industrialist since 1901 was acquitted on all counts The judgment was handed down by a tribunal consisting of H C Anderson of Jackson, Tenn Edward J Daly of Hartford Connecticut and William J Wilkin of Seattle Wash.

Convicted on 3 Counts

Krupp, 41 took over the billion-dollar enterprise from his father ailing Gustav Krupp, and his mother Bertha, for whom the Big Bertha guns of World War I were named He was convicted of exploiting slave labor starving and mistreating concentration camp workers and using prisoners of war to make German guns.

Others convicted on this count were

Ewald O Loeser, 60, finance and administration chief Eduard Houdremont, 52 Luxembourg-born metallurgist Erich Mueller 58 designer of the 'Gustav' gun which battered Stalingrad, Friedrich W Janssen 61, head of the Krupp Berlin office Max Otto Ihn 58 personnel chief, Karl F Eberhardt, 54, head of machine sales and war materiel Heinrich L Korschan 53, director of the Bertha works in Breslau Friedrich Von Buelow 59 liaison man with the Gestapo Werner H Lehmann 44 labor procurement official Hans Gustaf Kupke 63, head of the foreign workers' camps and experimental firing ranges.

Krupp, Loeser Houdremont, Mueller, Janssen and Eberhardt were convicted of plundering Nazi-occupied lands

The judgment said Krupp employed almost 12,000 foreign slaves and 2,500 prisoners of war in 100 factories in the Ruhr It said many died from the conditions and the hard work.

AGENT

preceded Miss Bentley to the senate witness stand yesterday to tell the senators he had approved Remington's transfer to the office of international trade and still has complete confidence in him.

Blaisdell, after a few heated exchanges with committee members, was swiftly excused when Miss Bentley arrived.

She told the senators

▶She collected Communist party dues from Remington as well as secret military information he obtained while working with the war production board (Remington and reporters both charges are untrue)

▶The Communists had a White House contact who once told them when the Americans were about to break a Russian code.

▶A high Army official whom she met at least once helped place Communists in key government positions.

▶Mary Markens Price a former secretary to columnist Walter Lippmann once helped her get through his files secretly to get material for the Russians on British American relations.

Miss Price now chairman of the Progressive party of North Carolina termed the last charge "far as I am concerned to reporters in Germany." It is an obvious effort to smear the great new Progressive Party

Lippmann, vacationing in Maine commented "It's all news to me. It's not true."

BALANCE YOUR GRAIN FOR EXTRA EGGS

Yes, it takes so little Purina Chowder to turn your grain into a scientifically balanced egg maker. You'll see the difference in egg production . . . a difference in your birds. That's because Chowder supplies what your grain lacks to do a job in the hen house. You'll be pleased, too, to learn how little it costs to get more eggs from your grain the Purina way!

LET US GRIND YOUR GRAIN and Balance it with PURINA CHOWDER

Bring in your grain. We have accurate grinding and mixing equipment. Our formulas are Purina Approved. We have one to fit your grain. Takes only 100 lbs. of Chowder to each 400 lbs. of grain.

WE ALSO HAVE THESE EGG-MAKING GRAIN BALANCERS

PURINA LAY CHOW

A supplement for scratch grain. Feed half and half with grain for lots of eggs. An economical ration that gets results.

PURINA EGG CHOW

No grinding or mixing Just put grain and Egg Chow in separate hoppers. Birds eat about 3 times as much grain as Egg Chow.

OH, WHAT A BEAUTIFUL HOME!

An expanse of green, velvety grass more than any other feature, adds to the beauty of a home.

But don't think a rich lawn is reserved only for those few possessed of a magical "green thumb." The three chief requirements for a carpet of green to stretch before your house are well-nourished soil, good grass seed, and plenty of water—from your garden hose if nature won't supply it.

PREVIEWS OF COMING ATTRACTIONS AT THE THEATERS

Astair and Garland Teamed at Palace

Fred Astaire and Judy Garland, the screen's top song and dance stars, starred together for the first time on the screen, join hands with Peter Lawford and Ann Miller to offer top musical entertainment in Irving Berlin's "Easter Parade," the M-G-M technicolor musical which is the current attraction at the Palace theater. It opened today and is billed to continue through Wednesday.

Laid in the picturesque theatrical period of the Ziegfeld and Dillingham shows is an appealing story of two people who dance their way to love. The acts and specialty numbers in the film are tied together in a plot in which Fred Astaire loses his glamorous dancing partner, Ann Miller, and boasts that he can replace her with any run-of-the-mill chorus girl. He picks Judy Garland out of an obscure chorus and molds her into star material.

The colorful backstage story offers seven new Irving Berlin songs as well as ten of the famed composer's earlier favorites. The new numbers include "Better Luck Next Time," sung by Judy Garland; "Happy Easter"; "Drum Crazy" and "Steppin' Out with My Baby," danced by Fred Astaire, "A Couple of Swells," sung and danced by Astaire and Judy Garland, "A Fella with an Umbrella," sung by Judy Garland and Peter Lawford, and "It Only Happens When I Dance with You," sung by Judy Garland and danced by Astaire and Ann Miller.

Starting Thursday for three days will be "Coroner Creek," a Western filmed in Cinecolor and starring Randolph Scott and Marguerite Chapman with George Macready, Sally Eilers and Edgar Buchanan.

The story of "Coroner Creek" is concerned with the efforts of Randolph Scott, a cowboy, whose sweetheart has been driven to suicide by George Macready, to run out Macready and avenge the death of his fiancee. After relentlessly searching for Macready through desert and rangeland, Scott corners the villain in Coroner Creek, Ariz., and destroys him.

Race Track Picture Billed at Marion

"Heart of Virginia," a thrilling race track picture starring Janet Martin, Robert Lowery and Frankie Darro and "Campus Honeymoon," an entertaining film, will be shown as a double feature Sunday and Monday at the Marion theater. The latter film stars Richard Crane, Hal Hackett and Lee and Lyn Wilde, blond twins.

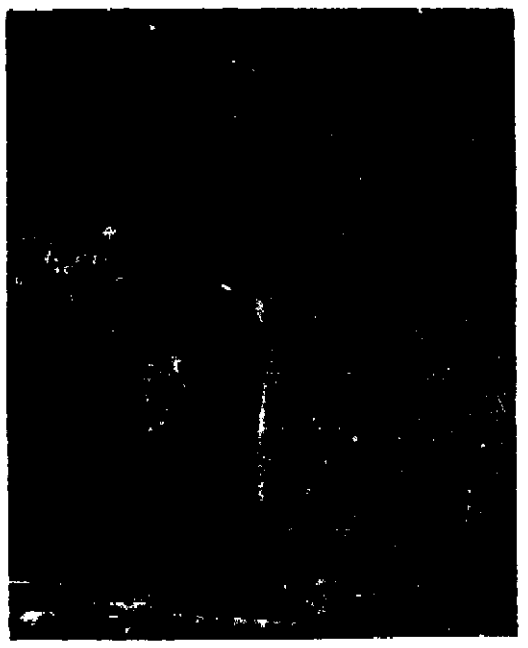
The former is the moving dramatization of the fight put up by Jimmy Easter, a famous jockey, to regain his reputation and peace of mind. He has hit the skids through an unfortunate track accident and blames himself for it. "Campus Honeymoon" tells of two veterans who return to college but are not allowed to register because they have no place to live. They team up with the Wilde twins, co-ed sisters, who are also homeless. They finally secure the only two empty remaining apartments in the veterans housing project only to discover that they are for married vets only.

Billed as a double feature for Tuesday through Thursday are "Nightmare Alley" and "Kiss of Death." The former stars Tyrone Power with Joan Blondell, Coleen Gray and Helen Walker, and heading the cast in the latter are Victor Mature, Brian Donlevy and Coleen Gray.

"Nightmare Alley" casts Tyrone Power in the role of Stan Carlisle, a ruthless carnival barker turned mentalist who succeeds in vaudeville, night clubs and finally his own phony tabernacle by preying on the fears of others. He rides roughshod over the women who adore him and men who trust him only to fall prey to a woman more ruthless than he.

"Kiss of Death" is a drama of a monster's adventures inside and outside prison walls.

Friday and Saturday, "Overland Trail" starring Johnny Mack Brown and Raymond Hatton, and "Shanghai Chest" with Charlie Chan, will be shown.



JUDY GARLAND AND FRED ASTAIRE, above, the screen's top musical-comedy stars, appear together for the first time in Irving Berlin's "Easter Parade," the technicolor hit which opened today at the Palace theater and will continue through Wednesday. Peter Lawford and Ann Miller are also starred in the film.

Double Feature At Ohio Theater

A double feature, "Flowing Gold" and "God's Country and the Woman," re-released films, will be shown for five days starting Sunday at the Ohio theater. The former stars John Garfield, Pat O'Brien and Frances Farmer, and heading the cast in the latter are George Brent and Alan Hale.

"Flowing Gold," a lusty saga of the Texas oil wells, depicts the dramatic fight for control of the gold—the rich black oil that has lain waiting since prehistoric time. It tells how John Garfield is forced to take over the reigns and save the burning wells from complete disaster.

In "God's Country and the Woman," George Brent is seen as Steve Bennet, a former play boy who achieves power in the woods through conflict with his ruthless brother. Presenting a constant flow of thrills, a runaway log train plunging into a gorge and the dynamiting of the jam to free the timber are a few of the excitements.

Starting Friday to play for four days will be another double feature, "Drums Along the Mohawk" starring Claudette Colbert and Henry Fonda, and "The Mark of Zorro" with Tyrone Power and Linda Darnell.

"Drums Along the Mohawk," based on Walter D. Edmonds' celebrated novel, presents a tale of the stirring days when stout-hearted colonists pushed inland to the valley in New York State to wrest a home from the wilderness against the onslaught of savage Iroquois Indians. It recounts the story of the city-bred girl who goes with her farmer-colonist husband into the Mohawk Valley, accepting the hardships and perils of frontier life. There she learns to hold her ground when warning drums tell of Indian attack.

"Down To Earth" At State Theater

"Down To Earth," photographed in technicolor and starring Rita Hayworth and Larry Parks, and "Prairie Raiders" with Charles Starrett and Smiley Burnette will be shown Sunday and Monday at the State theater.

Billed as a double feature for Tuesday and Wednesday are "Scandal in Paris" and "Cowboy Millionaire." The former stars George Sanders and Signe Hasso, and heading the cast in the latter is George O'Brien.

Showing Thursday through Saturday as a double billing will be Walt Disney's technicolor productions, "Song of the South" which stars Bobby Driscoll and Ruth Warrick, and "Sonora Stagecoach" with Bob Steele.

Suspense Story At Drive-In Theater

"Cloak and Dagger," a story of relentless suspense woven against a background of intrigue, romance and danger, will be shown Sunday through Tuesday at the Marion Drive-In theater located on U. S. Route 23, two miles north of Marion. The film stars Gary Cooper, Lilli Palmer and Robert Alda.

Billed for showing Wednesday and Thursday is the technicolor production, "The Time, The Place and the Girl." Starred are Dennis Morgan, Jack Carson, Janis Paige and Martha Vickers.

Friday and Saturday, "The Fabulous Dorseys," starring the two famous band leaders, Tommy Dorsey and Jimmy Dorsey, with their orchestra, and Janet Blair, will be shown. Featured in the cast are Paul Whiteman and William Lundigan. The film tells the life story of the band leading brothers and how they became famous in the music world.

"Home in Indiana" Coming to Joy

"Home in Indiana," a story dealing with the excitement of sulky racing and parts of which were photographed at the Marion county fairgrounds, will be shown Sunday and Monday at the Joy Theater in Oakland Heights. Starred in the production are Walter Brennan, Lon McAllister, Jeanne Crain and Charlotte Greenwood.

Opening Tuesday at the theater will be "The Fabulous Dorseys" starring Tommy Dorsey and Jimmy Dorsey, two great band leaders, and Janet Blair.

Cubs Leave on Long Road Trip Today Braced by 3-Game Win Streak

Bruins Stave Off Lima Rally To Claim Third Victory in Row, 9-6

Marion's Cubs, braced by a three-game winning streak, leave on the longest road trip of the season today, meeting Muncie's skidding Reds in a three-game set at their first stop

The Cubs built up a 6-1 lead by the third inning and outlasted a Lima rally to win over the Terriers, 9-6, at Lincoln park last night in their last home stand until Aug. 15.

It was their third straight win over the last place Terriers but left them in seventh place, 12½ games behind the Muncie Reds, whom they could knock out of the league lead if they win tonight and if Portsmouth wins too

Swede Saves Win

Jim Edgar started for Marion against the Terriers, but it took the fine relief pitching of Glen (Swede) Benson to save him his eighth win after the Terriers had chased Big Jim with a two-run outburst in the seventh.

Benson put out the fire and blanked the Terriers in the final two innings and meanwhile the Bruins drove home the win with two runs in the seventh

Pete Neukirch, no great shakes as a hitter when he first joined the club more than a month ago but now a regular in the hit column, and a pair of newcomers playing their first game for Marion, shortstop Wayne Carlson, late of Muncie, and right fielder Jesse Rogerson, scored two hits apiece in the 15-hit assault on Lima's Bill Bohne, who went the full route, but it was Gene Bobzean again who struck the heftiest blow—a home run, his sixth, over the left field wall in the third inning with Pete Trabucca and Johnny Juhasz on base via one-base hits All the rest of the starting lineup hit safely once.

Wildness Bothers Him

Edgar, bothered by wildness from the fifth inning on, gave up two walks and two hits while his mates made two miscues to give Lima three runs in the fifth, and in the sixth, he walked two more but left them stranded.

He got into trouble again in the seventh when a walk, two wild pitches, a Marion error and Bob Diedrick's single scored two runs and moved Lima to within one run of the Bruins. Then he passed Carl Raucher to put the tying run on first. Swede Benson struck out Gene Holder to end the inning and kill the rally.

After two walks and a Lima error filled the Marion sacks in their half of the seventh, Neukirch singled to right field scoring Marion's two final runs.

Only Six Entered In Rich Arlington Race

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, July 31—Only six three-year-olds were entered in today's 20th running of the $88,900 Arlington classic, one of racing's richest stakes

With Calumet Farm's ailing champion Citation out of the running with a pulled hip muscle Ben Whitaker's My Request and King Ranch's Better Self are the favorites

Others entered for the mile and a quarter event are D A Rosenbaum's Reborn, Joseph A Goodwin's Papa Redbird, Dixiana Stables' Shy Guy and Augustus and Nahm's Loujac

CHICAGO — Jimmy Foxx, famed home run hitter, blasted the ball over the roof of the left field stands in Comiskey Park, Chicago, four times. He was the only right hand hitter ever to hit a ball over the structure Two left-handed sluggers—Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig — did it however.

BRAVES WIN FOURTH STRAIGHT OVER REDS

By The Associated Press

Boston's Braves were within half a game of first place in the Ohio-Indiana baseball league today as Muncie's skidding league-leaders lost another

The Aces clipped Springfield 11-7, while Richmond's Braves handed Muncie its seventh loss in its last nine starts, 12-3

Trailing Muncie with a 53 won-39 lost record Portsmouth has won 52 and lost 39

In the night's only other game seventh-place Marion grabbed a 5-1 lead over last-place Lima in the first three innings and then staved off a Terriers' rally to win, 9-6

Zanesville at Newark was rained out Newark's Yanks, however, moved into a fourth place tie with Springfield Both are playing .500 ball

Richmond, winner of 21 out of its last 28 starts, spotted Muncie a 1-0 lead before turning the game into a rout It was the Braves' fourth straight triumph over Muncie Jim Herndon, who limited Muncie to eight hits, received credit for his 11th win of the campaign.

Dick Brown, Portsmouth centerfielder cracked a three-run homer in the fourth inning against Springfield and that eventually proved to be the winning margin John Castiglia, the A's shortstop, drove in five runs with four hits in five times at bat

Bruce Harlan Gains On Springboard Divers

By The Associated Press

OLYMPIC POOL, WEMBLEY, England, July 31 — Bruce Harlan of Ohio State university increased his lead today in a field of 27 contenders for the Olympic springboard diving championship

After eight dives with two more to go before the champion is crowned this afternoon, Harlan had a point total of 121.34.

At this stage Harlan's closest challenger was his Ohio State teammate, Miller Anderson, who moved up from fourth place after the first four dives to second this morning with 113.29 for eight dives

The two leaders are proteges of Mike Peppe, the Ohio State and Olympic diving coach

Mexico's brilliant young Joaquin Capilla held third place after eight dives while Dr Sammy Lee, the Pasadena, Calif, Army lieutenant of Korean parentage, dropped from yesterday's No. 2 position to fourth.

Capilla's point total was 111.67, Lee's was 106.38

Lee is the top-rated American in the high tower diving scheduled for next week Harlan and Anderson are entered in the same event.

Driving Range Pro Leads Western Open

BUFFALO, N. Y., July 31 The wind, the rain and the law of averages caught up with goldom's greatest occasionally, and it's that way today in the 45th Western open.

Mike Parco, a driving range pro from Buffalo, leads the field at the halfway mark with a 138 total. But the roaring breath of Bantam Ben Hogan, the National Open and PGA champ from Hershey, Pa., is hot on his neck.

The 33-year-old Parco playing his first tournament in 10 years, came through with a 67 yesterday over the wind and rain-swept 6,863 yards of Brookfield Country club's par-72 layout. He had a 69 opening day

Hogan added a 70 yesterday to his first round 67, for a 36-hole total of 137. Clayton Heafner of Charlotte, N. C., who led the first day by equalling the course record of 66, skittered off to a 77, but still was well within the top 60 and ties eligible for the last two rounds today and tomorrow

A field of 62 including nine amateurs, still were in the running with halfway scores of 153 or better All the "name" pros survived the cut.

Prospect Legion Splits Twin Bill

Special to The Star

PROSPECT, July 31 — Prospect's American Legion softball team split a twin bill here last night defeating the American Legion of Plain City, 4-2, but suffering a shut out to the Marion Moose 4-0

A six inning outburst gave the Prospect nine the win in the first game, singles by Sherman Biggerstaff, Merle Fryman, and Don Griffith and a wild pitch scoring three runs

Clyde Lewis Marion Moose mound ace, held the Prospect team to two hits in blanking Prospect in the afterpiece The Moose scored all of their runs in the second on two errors and hits by England, Rea, and Lewis.

AMERICAN EQUALS NEW WORLD MARK. Big, blond Roy Cochrane, 28-year-old Teachers College student at the University of Southern California and father of two children, thrills spectators at the first day's Olympic program in Wembley Stadium, London, as he breaks the tap ahead of France's J. Andre to win his semi-final heat in the 400-meter hurdles. He ran the distance in 51.9 seconds clipping a tenth of a second off the mark set in the 1932 Olympics but only equalling the brand new mark set by Sweden's Rune Larsson earlier in the day (International Radiophoto)

U. S. Trackmen Find Tough Competition in Olympics

By The Associated Press

OLYMPIC STADIUM, WEMBLEY, ENGLAND, July 31—The United States still may win the Olympic games track and field unofficial championship—but it won't be easy

The exuberant over-confidence of the past week faded today under the hard blows dealt in the high jump—an event America hoped to sweep

Even as the red, white, and blue drooped, there began to emerge the possible great hero of the 1948 games. He is Emil Zatopek of Czechoslovakia, the strangest, strongest, whitest, most anguished distance runner ever seen

Suffering with every step, Zatopek won the 10,000 meters yesterday in 29 39 6, a new Olympic record. The commotion he set up helped screen the embarrassment of the American high jumpers who bowed to John Winter of Australia at the ignominious height of 6 feet 6 inches

Here's how Americans fared in other sports on the first day of competition

Swimming

Swimming — Wally Ris of the University of Iowa equalled the 100 meter record of 57.5 in his preliminary heat Keith Carter of Purdue defeated favored Alex Jany of France in a 57.6 heat but both qualified for today's final as did Alan Ford of Yale After four compulsory dives, Bruce Harlan of Ohio State, was first in springboard diving with Dr Sammy Lee of Pasadena Calif, second, Joaquin Capilla of Mexico was third and Miller Anderson, Ohio State, fourth Ann Curtis of San Francisco won her 100 meter free style heat and Brenda Helser of Los Angeles was third in hers The American women breaststrokers were eliminated in the preliminaries

Basketball—The United States overwhelmed Switzerland, 86-21

Water polo—The U S blanked Uruguay, 7-0, in first round competition

Fencing—The men's foils team reached the semi-finals by defeating Canada and Switzerland

Pentathlon—Maj G. B. Moore of the U S Army finished second to Capt William Grut of Sweden in the 5,000 meter cross-country ride

Wrestling

Wrestling—Four Americans won and two lost Bantamweight Gerald Leeman, Cedar Falls, Ia., won with a fall Flyweight William Jernigan, Tulsa, Okla., welterweight Leland G. Merrill Jr., Milltown, N. J., and light heavyweight Henry Wittenberg, New York, won on decisions which count one point against them. Heavyweight Richard Hutton, Oakhurst, Okla., lost on a decision, counting two points against him and lightweight William Koll, Iowa State Teachers, lost on a fall, three points against him

But Barney Ewell, Mel Patton, and Harrison Dillard all come through the first two rounds of 100 meter heats smoothly And Roy Cochran, the scientific, rolling-hipped 400 meter hurdler from Indiana and now on the faculty of the University of Southern California, matched a new Olympic record in the semi-finals of his event at :51 9 That was the same time made by Rune Larsson of Sweden in winning the other semi-final The old record was :52 0 made by Glenn Hardin of the U S. in 1932.

Epworth Beats Forest Lawn For 1st Round Title

Epworth M E. took the first round of Church league play in a breeze last night as they trounced Forest Lawn 10 to 1 behind the four hit hurling of Guy Lewis Beside fanning 11, Lewis was potent at the plate getting three safeties, two of them for extra bases.

Bob Virden and Max Rosebery collected two for four all extra base pokes. Spurlock was the only Forest Lawn player who had no trouble with Lewis' delivery as he had a perfect day with three for three He also scored Forest Lawn's lone tally

Sohioans exploded for four runs in the first inning and five in the fifth to win over Osgood, 9-4 Osgood made good their hits but they just couldn't get enough of them. Walters allowed but four safeties.

Another make-up game, Marion Metal Products versus Farm Bureau, was called because of wet grounds.

CLEVELAND SCHOOLS TO PLAY IN STATE TOURNEY

By International News Service

CEDAR POINT, O., July 31—Cleveland high schools will compete in state basketball tournaments this winter—or at the latest in 1950—after a long absence from state competitions.

The announcement came today from Athletic Commissioner H M Emswiler at Cedar Point where the Ohio High School Athletic Association is meeting

Cleveland high schools dropped out of the tournaments after a dispute with the association over allowing top Cleveland teams to enter directly into state competition without regional play-offs.

Today Cleveland bowed to the athletic board and agreed to meet the requirements It will mean that a local tournament must be held to select one team to represent Cleveland in the state games.

PEGGY KIRK WINS TITLE

By The Associated Press

TOLEDO, O., July 31—Peggy Kirk of Findlay, the 1948 Ohio women's golf champion, added the Toledo women's district title to her string of championships yesterday She easily defended her district crown with a 10 and 9 conquest of Mrs. John Horgan, a former state and district champion.

TRIBE TOBOGGAN PICKS UP SPEED

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, July 31—The toboggan on which Cleveland Indians have found themselves lately was gaining momentum today.

In fact, the Tribesmen would be floundering in fourth place but for the fact that the cellar-dwelling Chicago White Sox got up off the floor last night to beat the New York Yankees.

After last night's harrowing encounter with the league-leading Boston Red Sox, the Indians were in third place, three games off the pace and two percentage points ahead of the fourth place Yankees

The Indians even registered six runs in the first inning last night, but the Red Sox kept pecking away and finally gained an 8 to 7 victory in the first of a four-game series

The Indians had a 6 to 3 advantage at the end of the first inning but a former Cleveland fireman Denny Galehouse, who has a so-so record with the Sox, gave them only two hits for the rest of the distance

Meanwhile the Sox battered three Cleveland pitchers, including Satchel Paige, who was charged with the defeat, for a total of 12 hits. The Indians had only six

Against Paige who met defeat for the first time in the major leagues, the rampaging Red Sox tied the score with an unearned run in the sixth and produced the deciding tally with three singles in the seventh

Legion Juniors Leave For Tourney Tomorrow

With their eyes on the state championship members of the Marion American Legion Junior baseball team will leave Marion at 6 p m. tomorrow for the trip to the playoffs on the Ohio State university diamonds Monday

Team managers will meet in Columbus tomorrow night to draw for their Monday opponents The Marion squad, district champs, will battle 13 other district winners from all over Ohio.

Many Marion persons will drive down to Columbus to see the games says W. E Orcutt, team manager.

The team will meet London at 3 30 this afternoon in a regularly scheduled league game at Lincoln park. This will be their last contest before the playoffs begin.

Joe McCarthy's Red Sox Have "Injun Sign" on Fading Tribe

By The Associated Press

Joe McCarthy seems to have the Injun sign on the fast-fading Tribe from Cleveland

Ever since Marse Joe's Boston Red Sox started to fly over the pre-season billing, they have found a real patsy in the Indians from Ohio

Eight victories in their last eight games with Lou Boudreau's gang have served to elevate the Red Sox [illegible] Cleveland [illegible]

Denny Galehouse notched his first relief win against Cleveland [illegible] an 8-2 3-inning start and winning over an 8-7 [illegible]

It was a big day for the Red Sox because the Athletics and New York also lost A's game the champs [illegible] a game and a half

4 Is Battered 17-2

Tex Shirley [illegible] losing it [illegible] tered by the [illegible] Tigers' [illegible] season The [illegible] were homers by George Vico Wertz and George Kell, Kell hit his with the bases [illegible]

Chicago outlasted the New York Yankees 8-7 in a slugfest that was decided on Taffy Wright's two-run single in the eighth inning Tommy Henrich of the Yanks in the game with a bases grand slam homer in the seventh

Rae Scarborough halted St Louis with four hits as Washington edged the Browns 3-2 The winning run scored when Frank Biscan walked pinch hitter Early Wynn with the bases loaded

The New York Giants picked up ground in the National by routing Chicago 9-1 while both Boston and Brooklyn, the teams ahead of them in the standings lost

Harry Brecheen of St Louis tamed the leading Braves 6-2 despite one bad inning The Cards had a no-hitter going to the seventh when he weakened to allow two runs but the Cards racked up five in the eighth, knocking out Johnny Sain.

Brooklyn remains 5½ games back of the Braves because of their 10-5 drubbing by Pittsburgh Bob Chesnes shaky in the first and again in the fifth after Gene Hermanski in a three-run homer, settled down to go the route, beating Ralph Branca.

Near Shutout

Sheldon Jones gaining for the fourth straight Giant victory had it in his pocket until he hit Andy Pafko on the wrist with a pitched ball Bill Nicholson lifted a fly to right center and the ball bounced out of Conway's glove for a double after he bumped into Lamar Pafko scored the lone Cub run

Andy Seminick continued to make life gay for Eddie Sawyer, the Phils' new manager as he bashed two home runs in the Phils 8-5 verdict over Cincinnati The husky catcher now has hit five homers in four consecutive games, making his total eight for the season.

PHILS WIN AS REDS BLOW 4-RUN LEAD

By The Associated Press

PHILADELPHIA, July 31—The Cincinnati Reds broke into the scoring column yesterday and got five runs after being shutout in three straight games However they blew a four-run lead and ended on the short end of an 8-5 score against the Philadelphia Phillies

Robin Roberts the Phils rookie righthander, scattered 10 hits and chalked up his fifth victory Harry Gumbert who came in after Ewell Blackwell and Ken Raffensberger retired, was charged for the loss

Blackwell, the Redlegs whip who already this season has missed one month's play because of a shoulder injury, hurt his shoulder again last night and was taken to a hospital Dr. Wilbur Boeum the team trainer, said he does not believe the injury is as serious as the one that previously sidelined Blackie

The Reds got four runs in their half of the second yesterday, but gave up three to the Phils in the same inning as Blackwell went out Andy Seminick's two home runs added to the Red troubles in the fifth and seventh innings and the Phils closed with two more runs in the eighth. Baumholtz's seventh inning double brought in the other Red tally.

Seeks Postponement Of Charles-Bivins Bout

By The Associated Press

PITTSBURGH, July 31—Jake Mintz, co-manager of Ezzard Charles, contender for Joe Louis' heavyweight crown said today he will seek postponement of 10-round bout with Jimmy Bivins Aug 9 because Charles is "in no condition to fight"

"On his doctor's orders, Charles has not been in the gymnasium since last Wednesday," Mintz said. "The doctor says he must take at least another week's rest before he can go to the gym again."

Traffic Toll for First Half of Year Reported

By International News Service

CHICAGO, July 31 — The national safety council reported today that 13,600 persons lost their lives in traffic accidents during the first half of the year.

In spite of this high figure the council said that the nation is establishing the lowest traffic death rate in its history.

The council reported 560 fewer traffic deaths in the first six months of the year than in the same period of 1947.

The safety council said the 4 per cent decrease was achieved despite an 8 per cent increase in mileage to give the nation a five-month traffic rate of 7.2 deaths for each hundred million miles traveled.

This the council reported, is the lowest mileage death rate ever recorded in the country.

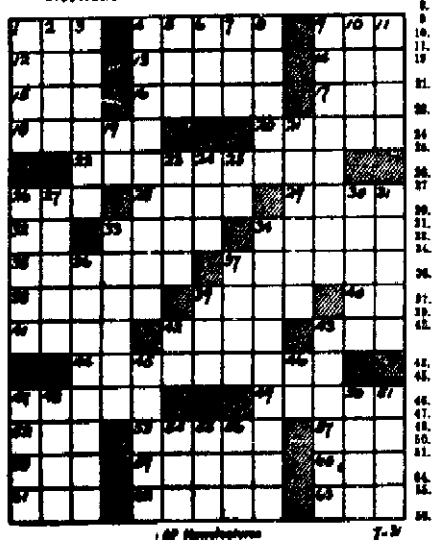
Solution of Yesterday's Puzzle



Landlord Can Afford To Be Choosy

By The United Press

MILWAUKEE — A Milwaukeean looking for a two-room apartment ran an ad in the paper.

A reply came from a man who said he would rent his flat if the following questions were answered satisfactorily:

"Do you draw shades fast and violently, morning and evening? Do you take your exercises by walking around the house? Do you spend much time in the kitchen? Do you entertain much, if any? Do you keep regular hours?

"What time do you get up in the morning and Sunday? Do you take baths every day or more? Do you have any musical instruments? How often do you clean the house? Do you make friends with neighbors?

"What would you do to prove to downstairs people that you would not be heard upstairs, as place has several squeaks in floors? Would you sign a lease? Would you be willing to move within 60 days if you were not considered a satisfactory tenant? Would you decorate?"

The man decided to save the letter. Just in case he gets desperate enough to fill out the questionnaire.

Few Car Accidents Laid To Mechanical Defects

By The United Press

MADISON, Wis.—If you bang your car into a culvert some dark night and then say it wasn't your fault, "the thingumabob slipped out of the whatzis," the chances are only about one in ten that you're right.

A study of fatal accidents in Wisconsin shows that about 90 per cent of the vehicles were in "apparently good condition" before the accident.

Of course, after it has hit a culvert wall, it's not easy to tell what state the car was in before the accident, but the investigators apparently did it. Human errors, they maintain, far out-rank vehicle defects as causes of accidents.
